

The Little Pop-Up Studio

welcome

LONDON FAMILY PHOTOGRAPHER

STUDIO FEELS IN THE HEART OF YOUR HOME AND HEART-FELT MOMENTS OUTDOOR WITH YOUR FAMILY

Hey

Thanks for stopping by!

If you've come this far, then I can only presume that you you get it...

You know just how precious moments with your growing family are and that they deserve to be documented and displayed.

I would be honoured to capture your family in it's natural, perhaps chaotic yet completely beautiful state. Whether you're welcoming your first baby, celebrating a birthday or simply want to add to your memory box, wall or album
- I've got you.

Here you will find out what to expect when you book a session with
The Little Pop-Up Studio.

A little About me

I'm Shani (pronounced shar-knee) and I'm the owner and photographer at The Little Pop-Up Studio. It is my fourth baby as I am also a Mother to two little girls and a dog.

I am all about connection. I love capturing little personalities, special relationships, first moments and laughter. I like to wait for the perfect moments to reveal themselves and always encourage playfulness through my images.

My Little Pop-Up Studio is designed to make sure you and your family are comfortable first and foremost. Allowing for a convenient, relaxed and fun in-home photography experience or an energetic - whether it be the calming or the lively kind - photo session outdoors with your family.

The Process

Here's a little overview about how it works:

- 1 Choose a date and time for your Photo Session and book it in.
- 2 Prepare for your session.
- 3 Woop - it's the day of your photo session!
- 4 Eagerly await and happily receive your Private Online Gallery
- 5 Download from your gallery or choose from one of the collections and await your fabulous prints/products in the post.

And that's it!
Easy peasy

Things to think about...

Ideal space in your home - My Little Pop-Up Studio takes up roughly 1.7m x 2.5m. If you're unsure about your space being suitable, I'm always available to offer guidance.

Ideal room temperature - make sure your home is well heated at a suitable temperature for all, especially newborns.

Little to no background noise - not always preventable, but I recommend keeping TVs and tablets off during our session so as to promote a centred atmosphere and fewer distractions. However music might work for your family.

Outfits - up to 3 different outfit changes per person. More information can be found in The Little Pop-Up Studio Style and Outfit Guide, which is sent after booking your session.

A stash of snacks and water - sometimes a little sweet treat can really sweeten the deal (and not just for a child)

Feed and Nap times - for the little people: it's always worth booking your session around their routine.

On the Day

It takes me approximately 30 minutes to set up my Little Pop-Up Studio. If we're on location, it's simply a matter of deciding on a meeting spot. I'll then have a route planned out for us all.

Sessions can last anywhere between 45 minutes and 3 hours.

My sessions are not timed, so there's no pressure on making sure everyone is settled immediately or consistently. You'll be surprised what we can capture even on an "off" day!

After your session

The turn around time for your Private Online Gallery to be delivered is between 10 - 14 days.

As part of every session, you will be able to download up to 3 digital images.

You can also choose to upgrade your collection. Prints and products from Collections can take up to 6 weeks.
